

Welcome to our

Silent Christmas Lesson

No Talking Please

*Our purpose in presenting this lesson in this manner is to help you feel the spirit in different ways.
You will be reading, writing, listening and watching.*

*Please wait to turn each page until directed.
Please do not skip ahead.
Thank you*

*Please listen to the song
"Candlelight Carol"*

Have you been listening to the words of this song?

*Is it even important to know "how?"
Sometimes we don't have to know exactly how or why some things exist.
We just know that they do.*

*"How do you capture the wind on the water?
How do you count all the stars in the sky?
How can you measure the love of a mother?
Or how can you write down a baby's first cry?"*

We Believe!!!!

*What are some things you are certain about in your life?
What do you believe to be true?*

*Please open your scriptures and read
Matthew 1:18-23*

*Listen to the words of the Hymn
"Oh, Come, All Ye Faithful"
We have all been given an invitation to*

Come, Adore Him.

*Do we heed the call that has been extended?
Do we come? Do we Adore Him?*

Many years ago this same invitation was given to find Him and adore Him.

*Please open your scriptures and read
Luke 2:8-14*

*Please listen to the words of the Hymn
“Far, Far Away”*

*The shepherds had a glorious invitation to find the baby and adore Him. An angel and a multitude of the heavenly host presented their invitation. Yet, they had not seen the baby.
They only knew what they had been told.*

Do you think the shepherds believed that the Savior had been born before they went to see Him? _____

*We weren't in Bethlehem. We did not hear the angels sing.
Yet, the invitation is there to come.*

Luke wanted to write so that we would, “know the certainty of those things.”

*Sometimes we have faith to believe things without seeing them. As you have learned about the principles of the gospel, has there been something that, as you heard it or learned about it, you knew was true right away?
What are some things you are certain about in your life?
What do you believe to be true?*

Please turn to Luke 2:15-20 and finish reading the story of the Savior’s birth.

After the angels were gone away, the shepherds went to Bethlehem, “to see this thing which is come to pass.” They did not hesitate, in fact, it says that “they came with hast.” They “found the babe lying in a manger.”

*They had Come.
They knew.
And then they shared.*

Please watch and listen

There in the sheltered warmth of a cave, beneath the limestone hills of Bethlehem, Jesus was born and was cradled in a manger. He left His divine and holy station; He left all the glory and majesty to enter the body of a tiny infant.

The story Luke shares with us, of the birth of Christ, is true. Mary believed it would happen. The shepherds believed that it did happen.

Do you believe?

Have you Come Unto Him?

Does Christ know that you believe?

*Please listen to the Hymn
"Silent Night"*

As you write down you feelings of Our Savior's birth

As we approach the day we celebrate Our Saviors birth, we would like to send with you our heartfelt wish that you know

We Believe!!

We Adore Him!

And we know that He loves you!

With all our love,
